Other important information

Arizona, Connecticut, Georgia, Maine, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Jersey, Ohio. TruStage may obtain information about you and any other persons applying for insurance. Some of this information will come from you and some may come from other sources. That information and any other information collected by TruStage may in some circumstances be disclosed to third parties, such as agents, affiliates, service providers and others without your specific consent. In some cases, we may need your direct authorization before sharing that information. We will not share your personal information with non-affiliated third parties (or, in some circumstances, our affiliates) other than our agents or service providers unless you authorize us to share it, or the law otherwise permits us to share it. Residents have the right to access, to correct and, in some states, to delete (if incorrect) the information collected about them, except information that relates to a claim or to a civil or criminal proceeding. If you submit a request to exercise these rights, you have the right to a response within 30 days. We may refuse your request where we believe the information is correct, required to fulfill a legal obligation, necessary to protect our legal interests, or as otherwise required or permitted by law. If we refuse your request, you may have the right to file a statement regarding what you believe to be accurate and fair information and why you disagree with our refusal. If you are refused coverage or if your application is postponed, you may also have the right to receive the specific reason in writing. To exercise your rights or if you wish to have a more detailed explanation of our information practices required by your state, please call toll-free 800.834.2617 or visit us online: <https://www.trustage.com/legal/privacy>.
